Haliburton Huskies Take Two-Game Lead

NORWICH — Bob Woodcock of Haliburton Huskies grabbed a stray Norwich Merchants pass in the first overtime period and he whipped home a 40-foot slapshot off the goal-post to give his team a 5-4 victory in the first game of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior 'D' best-of-seven Ontario Finals series.

Woodcock scored his goal with about four minutes remaining in the overtime. Other goal scorers for the winners were Craig Stamp with two goals, Gord Scheffee and Brian Walter.

Scoring for the home team were Rick Buck with two goals and Martin Wylie and Wayne Chalkley.

It took Walter's goal with 27 seconds remaining in regulation time to put the contest into overtime. The Huskies had pulled their goaltender Louis Dummitt in favour of an extra attacker in the final minute and had continuous pressure on the Merchants while trying for the equalizer.

During the final three-and-a-half minutes of overtime the Merchants did everything but put the puck in the net.

Dummitt stopped 12 Norwich shots during the final 10 minutes with many of them coming in the dying seconds.

Wayne Longthorne and Chalkley had the best scoring opportunities in the closing minutes. Longthorne failed to score when he shot wide on a breakaway and Chalkley hit the post with only 15 seconds remaining in the game.

Norwich seemed to get the game under control right from the opening face-off. The Merchants took a 2-0 lead by the end of the first period on goals by Buck and Wylie.

Norwich out-shot the Huskies 14-10 during the opening frame.

In the second period the teams traded goals in the first 12 minutes. Scheffee started the scoring at the :11 second mark only to have Buck come back and tally 31 seconds later.

Chalkley put the Merchants ahead 4-1 when he scored at the 6:41 mark. Stamp then scored at 11:40 on a pass from Woodcock.

Stamp put the Huskies within one goal at the 13:40 point of the second period. It was the Huskies first power-play goal of the night and it resulted from a scramble in front of the Norwich goal. Stamp, who stands more than six-feet tall, picked the corner on the sprawling Norwich netminder Jim Palmer.

Haliburton out-shot the Merchants 17-15 during the middle period.

Palmer held the pressing Haliburton Huskies scoreless through the first 19 minutes of the third period. He robbed Stamp of his 'hat-trick' goal at the 8:00 minute mark from close-in. He later took a sure goal away from Roger Scheffee who was trying to score on a rebound.

The Huskies out-shot Norwich by the margin of 17-13 during the third period.

In the overtime frame Norwich dominated the game as they out-shot Haliburton 12-4, which gave them an edge of 54-48 in shots during the game.

A total of 16 minor penalties were handed out by referees Walt Gardner and Don Myers. Haliburton were charged with ten of them and all penalties were minors.

* * *

On Saturday night the two teams played at the Haliburton Arena, and the Haliburton Huskies took this game by the close score of 4-2 over Norwich. It gave the Huskies a 2-0 lead in games in the best four-out-of-seven O.H.A. Junior 'D' Finals series.

A crowd of over 900 hockey fans were in attendance to see these two teams play to a scoreless first period of hockey.

In the second period Norwich grabbed off a 2-1 lead, but the local Huskies who are known as a great third period club came back with three unanswered goals and won the game by that 4-2 outcome.

Craig Stamp led the Haliburton Huskies attack with two goals while single markers went to Cam Botting and Brian Walters.

Haliburton And Glencoe Tie 7-7

Over 500 hockey fans paid their way into the Haliburton Arena on Sunday afternoon last to see the Haliburton and Glencoe Midgets play to a 7-7 tie in the fifth game of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association All-Ontario Midget Finals.

The Haliburton Club played one of their best games of the series and it was unfortunate that they had to settle for a tie. The result left the best four-out-of-seven series at three games to one in favour of Glencoe with one game tied.

Glencoe lead by the score of 2-1 at the end of the first period and after two periods it was tied at 4-4; at the end of regulation time it was all deadlocked at 6-6. In a 10-minute overtime session each team scored once and the game ended 7-7, with each club taking a point.

Haliburton scored the first goal in the overtime period at just the :40 second mark, but they could not hold on and Glencoe tallied later on to end the game.

Gerry McElwain was once again the big gun for the Haliburton Midgets as he scored three goals for the hat-trick. John Wilson picked up two markers while single goals came off the sticks of Larry LaPorte and Cameron Botting.

SPORTS FLASH

In the sixth game of the best-of-seven Ontario Midget Finals played at the Glencoe Arena last night (Wednesday) the Haliburton Midgets went down to an 8-2 defeat. The Glencoe Midgets emerged as Ontario Champions after taking the series four games to one with one game tied.

All in all it has been an excellent hockey season for the Haliburton Midgets as they went all out in every game in an effort to bring the Ontario Championship here to Haliburton.

We would like to congratulate the Midgets on their fine showing and their sportsmanship.

Boy Scouts To Sponsor Car Wash

The Boy Scouts of Haliburton are embarking on a work program to help raise funds for the new Haliburton Red Cross Hospital. They are setting up Car Wash Depots in Haliburton and will be at your service to wash and clean the inside of your car on three upcoming Saturdays, April 25, May 2, and May 9.

The depots will be set up in front of the L.C.B.O. Store, Fire Hall, the Arena and at Glenn Austin's Texaco Plant.

An adult will be along with the Scouts to help supervise at each depot.

Let's get behind the boys in this endeavour, and by doing so we will be helping a great cause.

C. W. Hodgson Passes Away

After a full, rich and eventful life Clayton W. Hodgson, former Federal Member of Parliament for the Riding of Victoria and Haliburton and one of this community's outstanding citizens, quietly passed away early on Tuesday evening.

Though he had been in poor health for some time there was not many of us who realized it, as he kept as active as ever and was about our streets and attended nearly every hockey game. Not too many were acquainted with the fact that he not only suffered from a breathing problem, but a serious heart condition as well.

While a countless number of friends will regret to learn of his sudden passing, they will at least have the knowledge that he passed into the great beyond in the manner with which he would have preferred.

The late C. W. Hodgson is resting at his late residence here in Haliburton until Friday afternoon, April 17, thence to St. George's Anglican Church for service at 2:00 p.m. Interment is to be made in Evergreen Cemetery Vault, Haliburton.

The family have expressed the wish that in lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Heart Fund and T.B. Association.

Letters to Editor

Minden, Ontario.
April 14, 1970.

To The Editor,
Haliburton County Echo,
Haliburton, Ontario.
Copy of letter sent to
Mr. Ian Sorbie.
Dear Sir:

At a recent meeting of the Haliburton County Ministerial Association your "Letter To The Editor" came up for discussion. We agreed that you showed a great deal of discernment and took a very courageous stand against an evil that is all too prevalent these days.

We want to, as a Ministerial, commend you for bringing these matters to the attention of the populace of this area, and for the charge of responsibility you directed to the theatre management that they make a change in their policy. We want you to know we stand behind you in this matter.

Sincerely yours,
L. Schmitt,
Secretary-Treasurer,
Haliburton County
Ministerial Association.

B.A.C. Speaker

The Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen will be holding their monthly Corporate Communion and Breakfast at St. George's Anglican Church in Haliburton this Sunday, April 19, at 8:00 a.m. The guest speaker for this occasion will be The Venerable R. P. Walker, Archdeacon of Peterborough, and a good turnout is expected to hear this outstanding speaker.

Cottagers' Association Honours Nila Reynolds

The picturesque walls of the Tally-Ho Room of the Squire's Open Hearth Restaurant in Toronto echoed the loud greetings of 130 friendly summer neighbours when the Boshkung Lake Cottagers' Association held their Annual Dinner last Thursday, April 9. Gay laughter prevailed as young and old exchanged happenings and experiences that had taken place during this long cold winter.

Guests came from far and near to enjoy one of the best social evenings yet staged by this group.

The highlight of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Nila Reynolds, authoress of "In Quest Of Yesterday", as she shared with her audience the history-packed experiences of some of the pioneers of Stanhope Township. In her own inimitable and humourous style she led us back through the years with story after story about the "hard-pressed" trappers and loggers of the early days as they tried so desperately to establish themselves in the beautiful country we have now learned to love so much. Many familiar family names were mentioned and related to the progressive change on this part of Haliburton County. In closing, Mrs. Reynolds offered the entire Association a challenge to become a working force by helping to restore historical records for collections of old reminders of the past. Preservation of wild life was also supported by Miss Grace Irwin as a special way we all could contribute to our summer environment.

Dave Barclay, President of the Association, called on Jock Sault to thank the speaker who had earlier been introduced by another Vice-President, Bob Wiltshire.

A second guest introduced to the meeting by Bev Robinson was Mr. Sinclair Nesbitt, Reeve of Stanhope Township and Warden of the County of Haliburton. Mr. Nesbitt was warmly applauded by the group for his strong and direct answers to questions put to him. The cottagers were informed that all residents of Stanhope will receive, on their 1970 Tax Bill, credit for that part of the Residential Tax Rebate ($10.96) denied them in 1969 by some bumbling on the part of the Department of Municipal Affairs. They also received the welcome news that the Airport will henceforth be a debt-free asset to the Township.

Interesting and timely information was given by Bev Robinson reporting on the activities of the Haliburton Highlands Property Owners' Council and the Federation of Ontario Cottagers' Associations.

In addition to the fine dinner there were draw prizes and prizes for the youngest and the oldest persons present, and for the one who came the farthest. The last was won by Millie Archer who was there with her entire family — Stan, Cliff and Jan, Don and Chris, and Gary.

President Barclay paid special tribute to his Secretary, Doris Robinson, for producing such a tremendous turnout.

Plans already exist for an even better meeting next spring.

Companions Watch In Horror As Boy Hit

BANCROFT (ENS) — An 11-year-old boy was killed on Sunday night when he was struck by a car on Highway 62 in front of his home near Maynooth, 13 miles north of here.

Dead is Robert Joseph Howran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howran of R.R. 1, Maynooth.

Ontario Provincial Police at Bancroft said the boy apparently had his back to the southbound car driven by Charles Cox, 36, of R.R. 1, Maynooth, when he was struck.

Four or five brothers and sisters with whom he had been playing watched in horror as the boy was carried more than 40 feet on the hood of the car before he rolled off onto the pavement.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Civic Hospital in Peterborough by Dr. Robert MacMillan, a Peterborough Coroner.

The Police said the accident occurred at 5:45 p.m.

An inquest may be called into the boy's death, Police said.

Fourth Game Here Sunday

All hockey fans are reminded that the fourth game of the All-Ontario Junior 'D' Ontario Hockey Association Finals will be played at the Haliburton Arena this Sunday afternoon, April 19, starting at 2:00 p.m.

One of the largest crowds of the hockey season is expected to be on hand to cheer the Haliburton Huskies on in their quest for a Junior hockey Championship. This is hockey at its best so don't miss it.

Dogs vs. Snowmobile

We notice there has been a report of deer being molested in their yards by the many dogs and also the snowmobiles, and that something is being done to put a stop to such interference which we think is the right measure to follow.

Let us first look at the dog question — should a dog be shot on sight if caught in the act? My answer is no. The reason is that the dog has been trained to run deer, and the hunters that come into the country in the fall, bringing along their dogs which have been trained to run deer, expect them to do just that; otherwise they are of no use and may be shot by the owner as worthless. Well, every hunter has to pay a dog tax and out of the deer season he is supposed to keep that dog on a leash or tied up during that period of the closed season. If that dog by any chance gets loose, which is generally the case, the first thing the dog does is make for the woods, and when he comes across a deer track his first thought is to run that deer — something he has been trained to do. The poor dog does not know he is doing wrong so why should he be shot.

There are ways to overcome this if the dog is doing such: try and do something about it by calling him off or giving him a scare of some sort. Then notify the owners rather than to have to shoot someone's pet hound or any other kind of dog; he is a noble animal and is worthy of praise.

Owing to the fact that the dog has been tied up so long, he is anxious to take it out on anything — even a rabbit, as it is just the same to him — in order to burn up some of his vitality which has been drilled into him by his masters.

Now, the snowmobile is a different question. In the first place persons running them should know when they are in the deer country and try to avoid going any further; they can avoid it by turning back. But if they want to call it sport and continue to press the chase then they are the ones that should be made pay such fines that the Department of Lands & Forests see fit.

We all are aware that either of these incidents are not good for the deer, especially at this time of the year when in a short time around June the animals will be making ready for the fawning time, but if this is not to be stopped then we may as well not do anything in regards to the method of conservation. Our deer are not as they were 10 years ago so if we are to bring them back, as it is our hope, we all must try and do something to help this situation.

We fully understand the worry and care they are putting forth to show to those who do not care if a dog is shot or if the owner of a snowmobile is ordered into and to have to pay a fine of many dollars and probably lose his machine in the bargain, but above all spare the dog as he does not know he is doing wrong.

Consumer Tips . . .

Soap — And Automatic Washers

Inspired by the current publicity and concern about environmental pollution and the contribution that phosphate detergents make to water pollution, many consumers are using — or considering the use of — soap for home laundering.

Oliver Wendell Holmes once said "Man's mind once stretched to a new idea never returns to its original dimensions".

But a woman's mind, being more flexible, is capable of infinite adjustment! For example, many women who have used nothing but detergents for washing for the past 25 years are now thinking of changing to soap!

We've had soap for 2,000 years. While there have been many refinements in it through the years, it has, from a chemical standpoint, remained basically unchanged. On the whole, soap has been — and still is — a wonderful cleaning agent but it has always had one major drawback; it combines with the minerals in hard water to form an insoluble, useless material called soap curd.

If the proper measures are not taken, soap curd can lead to poor washability, extreme linting and even to possible service problems. Before soap can be used successfully, several factors must be taken into consideration: * Water Hardness * Water Temperature * The Concentration of the Soap Solution.

* * *

What About Water?

A consumer cannot shop for another brand if she is dissatisfied with the water she is using — nor can she just stop using it! Instead, she must learn how to make the water available to her work better.

The source of all water is precipitation — either in the form of rain or snow. Rain, itself, is practically pure water originally; however, as it falls and is absorbed into the ground, it dissolves many soluble and sparingly-soluble materials with which it comes in contact — and these are the trouble-makers for soap!

* * *

The Hardness Minerals

Minerals dissolved in water include common table salt, sodium sulphate and salts of calcium, magnesium, iron and manganese. Carbonates, bicarbonates and silicates are also picked up and the water is then far from pure. The mineral content of water varies from one part of the country to another, from one town to another, from one well to another and from one season to another.

Soap will soften hard water by tying up the hardness minerals but, in so doing, it forms the previously-mentioned, insoluble soap curd — and that curd leads to laundry problems!

Using soap, best washing performance is obtained with soft or artificially-softened water. In fact, softened water is a must for good washing results!

* * *

What To Do About The Wash

Unless there is enough soap present to tie up the hardness minerals and to remove and suspend the soil, there will not be suds. So, suds are an accurate — and very important — gauge of a soap's ability to clean!

Further, the soap suds head must be maintained all through the wash part of the washer's cycle for, once a soap suds head breaks down, cleaning has ceased and soil is being redeposited on the clothes.

To maintain at least a two-inch suds head all over the surface of the water in the washer, the homemaker should be prepared to add from one to three cups (and more, if necessary) of soap to her washer. The amount will, of course, depend on the hardness of the water and the soil on the clothes.

A good rule to remember is that you should never be able to see open water spaces through a soap suds head!

* * *

What About Soap Stretchers?

If the water supply in the home is not naturally soft or artificially softened, a non-phosphate water softening agent should be used to decrease the amount — and the expense — of soap necessary for hard-water washing.

Washing soda, ammonia and borax can be used along with the soap in amounts that would vary from half cup upwards depending on the water hardness.

* * *

What About The Rinse?

Although it is not generally recognized, it is even more important to add water conditioner to the rinse than it is to have such a product in the wash part of the cycle!

Failing to add water softener to the rinse means that soap left in the clothes after the wash part of the cycle would react with the hardness minerals in the rinse water to form soap curd which would lead to "tattle tale gray" clothes, excessive linting and perhaps even to service problems.

Water softening compounds are used in the rinse in quantities comparable to those that are used with soap for the wash.

If the automatic washer does not have a rinse conditioner dispenser similar to that available for some washer models, the homemaker should return to the washer to add, manually, water conditioner for the rinse part of the cycle.

* * *

What About The Rinse Conditioner Dispenser?

In these days of pollution consciousness, we must be inventive — and resourceful! That's why some fabric softener dispensers make a perfect dispenser for liquid (ammonia) or liquefied water softening agents.

Because the dispenser will dispense only liquids, consumers can make a solution to have on hand for convenient use. We are suggesting proportions in the order of half pound of washing soda or borax to one quart of water. One cup of the solution thus made will adequately deal with all but the hardest of waters.

For the most part, all of the water softening agents mentioned here soften water by precipitating out other minerals which, although they are not soluble, do not interfere with the cleaning process. To rid fabrics of any traces of these minerals that may remain in the washer tub, an extra clear rinse is recommended.

* * *

What About Water Temperature?

Cold water washing has no place at all in the scheme of things when soap is being used as the cleaning compound!

The adage, "the hotter the water, the whiter the wash", is very apt — in fact, it's almost a must! Water for washing should not be less than 140 degrees Fahrenheit in the washer tub!

Warm water for rinsing will also give best washing results.

YOU CAN'T WIN 'EM ALL

There's nothing like a little change at this time of year to pull you out of the doldrums. That's what my wife said when the school holidays were coming up. And she was right.

Most of our friends were going somewhere: Skiing, Florida, Jamaica, Mexico, South Carolina.

Family obligations and lack of cash vetoed anything like that, but she had a wonderful plan. My brother-in-law and family were going to Florida. They live in the city. We'd go to the city, stay at their place, saving a big hotel bill, take in a few shows, and step out to dinner a couple of times.

"It'll be just like home for you" says she. "You can take your exam papers and mark them, you won't have a care in the world, we'll have some fun, and it will be a nice change for you."

It was.

Our daughter was home for the weekend, but was going back to the city to stay in the grubby hole her friends rent. She wanted to take back her cat and kitten. She was prevailed upon to wait until mid-week — when we were going down — for the animals' sake. First mistake.

Word got around among her friends. Second mistake. To cut it short, we left for the city with two cats, four teenagers, two big boxes of grub for Kim, enough clothes to go to Europe, and me in a surly mood.

Arrived at Kim's abode and carried up the food, only to discover that three teeny-boppers had beat her to it, and there wasn't room for her.

Took her back with us to the brother-in-law's house, a handsome place indeed. Picked up the key from a neighbour, as arranged. Turned key in lock. It bent. Played with lock. Stomped on key with heel to straighten it out. Couldn't. Finally door swung open. Great relief.

Fumbled for lights, all located in wrong place. "Phew! This place stinks," said Kim. She was right. Dopey sister-in-law had not turned refrigerator off properly. Freezer was unfrozen, water all over floor, meat putrid.

Solid hour of mopping up, scrubbing out frig. All hope of hamburger gone out in garbage, rotten. Eventually, I made a mess of crumbled buns in a large tin of spaghetti sauce. It tasted like spaghetti sauce, which is pretty strong without spaghetti.

House was cold. Turned heat well up. Nothing happened. Steam heat. An hour later it was 80. Turned heat way down. Nothing happened. Steam.

Tried washing dishes. No hot water. Afraid to go out to show, or anything, because of faulty key. Might never get in again. Suggestel: "Let's get the hell out of here and check in at a hotel." No takers. Too tired. Watched TV and went to bed.

Next day same thing. Hot water came on, for no reason, but wife and daughter bickered most of day, also for no reason. Had company. Sent out for food. Stayed up too late. Fell asleep. Awoke to great squabble and daughter leaving, with her cats. Persuaded her to settle down. Three a.m. and no buses running. She's not so dumb, and agreed.

Third day, worse. Freezing rain and snow outside, no food and raw nerves inside. My wife was right from the start. It was just like home. And my exam papers were still in the suitcase.

Finally took bull by horns and went out on town. Downtown packed with solid mob, barely moving traffic. Had beautiful dinner in crowded joint, after standing in line for half-hour. Hamburg for me, coffee for the girls, who weren't hungry from feminine perversity. At last, saw a one-hour revue, at 11:00 p.m. Home at 12:30 a.m.

Next day, took Kim down to her house, with cats. All the food we'd brought for her was eaten.

Back to house. Wife slaving to clean up. I said: "I'm going home. Period!" For once, no argument. Home through blizzard. Stopped by cop. But, ah, that home sweet home. No cats, no kid.

There's nothing like a little change.

Smith - Lahay Wedding Solemnized At Church Of The Redeemer, Toronto

In a candlelight ceremony on Friday, March 13, 1970, at the Church of the Redeemer, Avenue Road, Toronto, Patricia Yvonne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lahay of Minden, became the bride of William Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith of Don Mills. Canon Owen Pritchard officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked radiant in a white peau-de-soie gown on empire lines with lace trim and a matching train. Her cathedral veil fell from her headpiece of seed pearls, and she carried a solitary long-stemmed deep pink rose.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Brian Henry (formerly Liz McKay) of Toronto, cousins Miss Patricia Hincks of Toronto and Miss Barbara Hincks of Ottawa, and Miss Ruth Bougner of London. They were dressed alike in floor-length gowns of purple velvet with ruffle trim and headpieces of rose, purple and white hyacinths, and carried candles centred in bouquets of pink and white carnations and purple hyacinths.

The flower girl was Miss Rosemary Orr of Burlington wearing a floor-length gown of rose velvet.

Best man for his brother was Mr. Peter Smith of Don Mills. The ushers were Mr. Brian Walsh of Barrie, Mr. Wayne Kay of Toronto and Mr. Teddy Hincks, cousin of the bride, of Ottawa. The junior usher was Master Jeffrey Smith, brother of the groom, of Don Mills.

For the reception at the Prince Arthur House the bride's mother received wearing a floor-length gown of orchid terregal silk with beading trim and matching headpiece, and a corsage of purple-throated orchid. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a floor-length gown of gold and green brocade and a corsage of a gold-throated orchid. The uncle of the bride, Dr. E. P. Hincks of Ottawa, proposed the toast to the bride.

For the honeymoon the bride wore a matching coat and dress of lime green, wide brimmed hat and navy accessories. The trip was to enjoy skiing in the Eastern States and Vermont.

Out-of-town guests were from Bracebridge, Thornbury, Ottawa, Montreal, Burlington, Brampton, Barrie, St. Thomas, Simcoe, Young's Point and Minden.

On their return the happy couple took up residence in Barrie.

CHURCH NEWS

THE SALVATION ARMY

RED SHIELD CAMPAIGN

Spring is the season of re-birth. When the days get noticeably longer, and the air gets warmer with promises of those lazy, hazy days of summer yet to come, it's impossible not to feel an upsurge of well being. Spring also reminds us that May brings with it the Red Shield Campaign of The Salvation Army. Once a year The Salvation Army comes to you for support in its work of caring for the elderly, rescuing the unfortunate, and helping those who have nowhere else to turn. This year when the snow melts, let your heart melt also and promise yourself you'll help the Red Shield help bring the promise of spring into the lives of those to whom winter might last all year round if it weren't for the Red Shield of The Salvation Army.

IN MEMORIAM

BARNHART — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Melvin Barnhart, who passed away suddenly on April 17, 1968.

Today recalls the memory
Of a loved one gone to rest,
And those who think of him today
Are those who loved him best;
This day comes with sad regret,
It brings a day we shall never forget,
He fell asleep without goodbye
But memories of him will never die.

—Lovingly remembered by wife Vera and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

CARPENTER — In loving memory of Dad, Albert E., who passed away February 21, 1968, and Mother, Mary Louisa, who passed away April 25, 1969.

Your last parting wishes
I would like to have heard,
And breathed in your ears
My last parting words;
Only those who have lost
Are able to tell,
The pain in the heart
At not saying farewell.

—Ever remembered by daughter Katie.

MUMFORD — Arthur, April 19, 1963.

Somewhere, somehow, in that "Great Beyond"
We're sure that you must know
How very much we miss you,
How hard to see you go;
Death is one appointment we must keep
Though some may call it fate,
But one by one it calls us
And God, He sets the date.

—Fondly remembered by Ronald, Iris and Family.

Canada Manpower Report For March

During the month of March, 1970, the Peterborough Canada Manpower Centre referred 409 clients to employers throughout the area it serves, which includes all of Peterborough and Haliburton Counties, as well as Millbrook and Cavan in Durham County; Campbellford, Hastings, Percy, Seymour and Monaghan South in Northumberland County; and Bobcaygeon, Omemee, Emily, Somerville and Verulam in Victoria County.

The placement of 125 of these persons had been confirmed by month's end. In addition, 60 placements were made in casual jobs.

Over 100 men were interviewed for jobs in mining in the Sudbury area and 13 of these clients have been relocated so far.

These figures compare favourably with March of 1969, which saw 403 referrals resulting in 161 local placements during a more buoyant economic climate.

At month's end there were 3,632 unemployed clients registered with the Canada Manpower Centre as seeking full time employment. There were also 133 employers' orders that had not been filled, the majority being in either highly skilled occupations or in the personal service area such as live-in housekeepers, cleaning women, etc.

Training starts under the Canada Manpower Training Program were arranged for 75 clients of the Peterborough Canada Manpower Centre during March, and at month's end 500 Canada Manpower Centre clients were attending courses at the Retraining Division of Sir Sandford Fleming College of Applied Arts and Technology.

Also during March 61 grants under the Canada Manpower Mobility Program were approved by the Peterborough Office, including 44 exploratory grants and 17 relocation grants. These grants are made to mobile clients, when in the opinion of a Manpower Counsellor there is no work available for them locally and prospects of permanent work are good in another locality.

The Canada Manpower Centre at 130 Hunter Street West, Peterborough, Telephone 745-0551, is open each weekday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and appointments can be arranged for other times if necessary. The service is free and available to all Canadian residents.

New Books At The Minden Library

The following are four of the new books at the Minden Public Library after a recent exchange:

North Cape - Adult Fiction - J. Poyer, Doubleday. A super-spy story with a setting in the Arctic. Can Teleman survive to give the essential information to the Americans before he is captured by the Russians?

London Under Fire - Adult Non-Fiction - M. Henery, J. M. Dent. This is a true story of London, England. Who would miss reading of London with the enemy at its throat during the Second World War?

Do Not Annoy The Indians - Betty Baker, Macmillan. An exciting story with funny incidents to give its readers a vivid and refreshing view of what the Old West was really like.

Son Of Mohawks - Juvenile Non-Fiction - C. A. M. Edwards, Ryerson. This is a story of Pierre Radisson when he was captured by the Mohawks, and after two escapes he finally returns by way of Europe to Trois Rivers.

Monmouth Township Council

The Regular Meeting of the Monmouth Township Council was held on Monday, April 6, 1970, at 7:30 p.m., with all members being present.

A temporary permit was granted to Mr. Lawrenson for a small building to act as a supply place while a permanent building is being built on Lot 34, Concession 10, on Highway 121.

The Manse Committee of the United Church presented their request for improvements to the municipal house, and the Council as a whole will visit the property and view the needs.

A delegation from St. Margaret's Anglican Church discussed the disposal of the Church at Essonville and many views were expressed. The Council decided to view the condition of the building before a decision is made. All agreed that it is of historical value and should be preserved as such; this Church is nearing 100 years and it is the oldest church in the Township of Monmouth. A fact of interest is that this church was pre-fabricated in England and sent to Essonville for erection.

The Building Inspector made a request for a night for making amendments to the Building By-Law.

A request was sent to the Municipal Engineer of the Department of Highways of Ontario, Bancroft, for a meeting with the Council.

A call for tenders regarding 4,000 yards of crushed gravel to be stockpiled was made.

A request was sent to the Department of Municipal Affairs to have someone from their department explain subdivision control.

The following Accounts were passed for payment: General - $1,336.42, Roads - $2,998.97. It is to be noted that in the Road Account the final payment was included to the Consulting Engineers, Greer and Galloway, in connection with the Municipal Garage. Welfare Accounts were passed in the amount of $429.50.

Ron Stackhouse Playing In Seattle

Ron Stackhouse, who had been playing hockey this past season with the Providence Reds of the American Hockey League, returned to his home at West Guilford for a few days last week before going to play for the Seattle Totems. The Providence team narrowly missed the playoffs this year.

Ron, who is a great hockey player, is expected to play with the Oakland Seals of the National Hockey League next season. The Oakland management are very high on Stackhouse, and they claim that he is one of their brightest prospects.

Before going to Providence, he played with the Peterborough T.P.T. Petes of the O.H.A. Junior 'A' Hockey League, and he was also a former star player with the Haliburton Huskies of the O.H.A. Central Ontario Junior 'D' Hockey League.

We wish Ron the best of luck with his hockey career.
